

Regulatory Affairs Manager Pharma – Switzerland 80-100%

Would you like to join and contribute to an award-winning, successful and growing multi-cultural organization in the heart of Europe and a world-leading region of the pharmaceutical industry?

SFL Group and its dynamic cross-functional team provide premium consulting support to companies in the healthcare and life sciences fields. Our clients range from vibrant start-ups to established top 10 pharma and medtech companies.

We have an opening for a Regulatory Affairs Manager Pharma - Switzerland

The SFL regulatory team provide strategic regulatory advice and hands-on operational support for drugs, biologics and advanced therapy medicinal products (ATMPs) including gene therapy products as well as medical devices and combination products. Our experience covers all life cycle stages from development to registration and post-marketing activities.

Core responsibilities

- Leading Swiss regulatory activities on assigned projects
- Develop and lead Swiss regulatory strategy
- Ensuring regulatory compliance of assigned projects
- Independent preparation of Swiss regulatory dossiers
- Interactions with Swissmedic
- Interactions with client contact persons

Qualifications and requirements

- Master/PhD in Pharmacy, Life Sciences or equivalent
- Minimum of 2-3 years Swiss regulatory affairs experience
- Hands-on experience and sound understanding of the Swiss regulatory processes
- Analytical and systematic thinking, organization, business orientation and flexibility
- Able to work independently and on own responsibility under pressure
- A highly motivated and open minded personality, able to work in an international environment
- Excellent written and verbal communication skills in both German and English
- Swiss or EU/EFTA citizen or valid Swiss work permit

SFL offers

- A stimulating role in an award winning company (Great Place To Work)
- Active contribution to registration of innovative products
- Continuous development and external educational trainings for each team member
- Work in an energetic, motivated team
- Rewards for outstanding accomplishments

About SFL

We provide innovative and customized services and solutions in the life science field from offices in Switzerland and the EU.

We provide innovative and customized services and solutions in the life science field from offices in Switzerland and the EU. Our main areas of expertise are Regulatory Affairs, Medical Affairs, Quality Assurance & Supply Chain, Market Access, Public Affairs, Pharmacovigilance, and Legal & Compliance.

Expertise, innovation, development, respect and ethical behavior are our values and corner stones of our company culture and key to our success and excellent reputation. We are a rewarding company with an excellent environment to grow.

Please send your application with CV, motivation letter and references only via email to hr_sfl@sfl-services.com (no paper applications or phone calls).